WOMAN DIES FROM EXPOSURE, FOUND IN THOMPSON'S WOODS

Aged Mrs. Elizabeth Frahm, Temporarily Deranged, Wanders From Home.

In a little gully in Thompson's Woods, near the intersection of Massachusetts avenue and Rock creek, where she had evidently sought protection from the cold, the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Frahm, eighty years old, who had been missing from her home, 29 1/2 Q street northwest, since Saturday, was found yesterday afternoon. The aged woman had died from exposure.

About 3 o'clock last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Frahm left the house, telling her son's wife that she was going for her usual walk. When her son, Henry Frahm, an employee of the Government Printing Office, arrived home that evening his mother had not returned. Thinking that she had called on friends, and decided to stay for supper, he went to several neighbors, but no trace of his mother could be found. He reported the matter to the police, and a general alarm was sent to all the stations. Lookouts were also sent to all cities and villages in nearby States.

Although the search included all the hospitals and other retreats nothing was heard of the aged woman until her body was found yesterday afternoon. The body was discovered by Warren Saunders, of 110 H street northwest, who was walking through the woods. He notified the police of the seventh precinct, and Sergeant Giles and two officers went to the spot. The remains were removed to the morgue, and Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of death from exposure.

When she left the house Saturday Mrs. Frahm was clothed only in a black and white calico wrapper and a black shawl. She wore a black fascinator over her head. She had always been mentally and physically active, but it is believed by members of the family that she became temporarily deranged. She was not familiar with the section of the city in the vicinity of Rock creek, and it is thought that her mind became affected and that she had no idea of the direction she was going.

Mrs. Frahm was a German descent, and upon the death of her husband in New York six years ago, came to Washington and took up her residence with her son. The body was taken in charge by an undertaker, and will be shipped to New York for burial.

KNOTHOLE TARGET, SENDING FALSE ALARM, PEPPER IS SHOT LANDS BOY, IN PRISON

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 2.—Rivalling the tale of William Tell is that of Floyd, the thirteen-year-old son of William Eckert, of Treichler's, near here, who went to the barn to shoot at a mark with a bow and arrow, using as a target a knothole in the fence near by.

A younger brother coming along and wishing to see his brother, unseen, went to the same knothole that was being used as a target, and peeping through, watched the performance.

Not knowing of his attentive audience, the young archer shot, and the arrow, flying true, went straight into his younger brother's eye. The eye was removed today, and the lad is in a critical condition.

For sending in a false alarm of fire to the engine and hose companies of the Fifth fire district, Levi Butler, eighteen years old, was today sentenced to pay a fine of $100. In default of payment he was sent to jail for six months by Judge Kimball in the District branch of the Police Court.

Butler alleged that he had been made drunk by his companions, and that they had put him up to pulling the box. Police Detective Delaney of the Fifth precinct, arrested him.

The Need of Cash Forces Prices Still Lower at This

We're short of ready-money. It took considerable of our cash to buy out the other partner—and we want to get hold of some money. This necessity is your advantage—we have disregarded costs and qualities in the attempt to get hold of immediate cash.

Today this business is being conducted by the senior partner solely. The other member of the firm severed his connection on the last day of nineteen-six.

CHURCH SLEUTHS WHISKY BUYERS

Chicago Workers Want to Close Sunday Saloons.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Thousands of church workers had no difficulty Sunday in buying intoxicants in some two thousand saloons.

In a pouring rain the church people worked in pairs. The Rev. W. A. Bartlett, who is conducting a crusade for Sunday closing, will put the evidence obtained in shape and submit it to the State's attorney.

The church sleuths bought whisky in half pints, pints, quarts, and drinks which they did not drink. A State law closing saloons on Sunday has been ignored for thirty years. Mayor Dunne says it is opposed by public opinion. He has been mandamus to show cause why he should enforce it.

The evidence gathered will be put in the form of affidavits and placed in the hands of the State's Attorney Healy, with a petition signed by thousands of church members that he secure the indictment of every saloonkeeper whom the evidence implicates.
